As with last year’s Walk of Honor, this is not a fundraiser; all funds go to the creation of the banner, booklets, and keepsake frames. This project is being coordinated again by the Riverside Historical Society in cooperation with the Township Committee and Public Works.

Thank you to last year and this year’s sponsors and, of course, the biggest thanks to those who serve our country.

In January we shared the newly elected Officers and Board Members from our December vote; however, it was not a complete list of our Board Members. In order to clear up confusion, we wanted to share the complete list of our Board:

Alice Smith, President
Karen Anderson, Secretary
Bob Knoll, Past President
Vince Malecki, Trustee
Herm Maurer, Trustee
Joe Peditto, Trustee
Brittany Rae, Vice President
Joan Serio, Treasurer
Peter Chiaccio, Trustee
Bud Maurer, Trustee
Joe Palombi, Trustee
Dave Speegle, Trustee

LIZETTE'S CORNER

The picture above may be photoshopped but the threat of serious illnesses were very real for the Zurbruggs in their lifetime. Theophilus died years before the 1918 pandemic that our current one has been compared to, but Lizette most likely wore a mask and limited social contact during that time just as we are today.

With Easter and other Spring holidays upon us, can you identify these four Palm Sunday attendees? Unfortunately, though this photo was donated to our archives, it was not marked with names or a year. If you can name them, email us!

Does the park they're in look familiar?
Guess which one and we'll reveal the location in our next issue!

What would 19th Century social media look like? Wonder no more! Taken from Riverside newspapers:

April 10, 1892 - Yesterday, the Blessing of Palms took place at St. Peter's Church, after which, they were distributed to the congregation.

April 9, 1898 - There is quite much anxiety among the young ladies to see who can make the greatest show on Easter Sunday with their fancy dresses and hats.

April 1, 1911 - The Acme Tea Company opened it's store on Scott Street on Friday morning.
